

The survey data available within the red boundary shown includes areas of flood prone roads and lots. Available survey data includes elevation spot-shots, existing utilities, parcel lines, edge of pavement, stormwater infrastructure, building footprints, and all other site features identified within the survey boundary. Up-to-date survey information is available in CAD (DWG) format. Data is georeferenced to NAD83 as the horizontal datum and NAVD88 as the vertical datum.